St. Luke News

This is a day that God has made let us rejoice and be glad in it.

This seemed to be the attitude of the St. Luke's members and friends who attended the annual family day at the St. Luke Baptist Church Sunday, May 17 in its annual family day services.

Rev. J. McLaughlin was present along with Rev. Alvin Jones. Rev. McLauchlin was M. C. and the Rev. Jessie Franklin Smith and his young adult choir from the New Shiloh Baptist Church were guests for the day.

They opened services by singing soul lifting spirituals and chants. Preceeding the sermon the Rev. Smith offered words of gratitude. For the occasion he began to speak from Act 24 through 10, on "Something to Shout About". He said the family must be strong and work together. This was a great message, a challenge to all listening. The choir rendered beautiful music until the close of the 11 a.m. service with paino, drums, guitar and other which made it so inspiring.

The offering was very good.

Members and friends of the church brought out a bountiful lunch which was served in the dining area of the church.

At 4:00 p.m. this same choir gave an enjoyable concert that helped make the day perfect.

Miss Eleanor Doane, who teaches at William Campbell High School, was instrumental in having her choir and pastor present to St. Luke, Mrs. Louise Canada along with Rev. McLaughlin supported the action. The St. Luke Church received them graciously.

The Cornerstone Baptist conference of Christian Education, convened with the Hat Creek Church school May 16. Rev. J. Cabell, Jr. is president. Rev. Jack Wilson gave the inspirational message.

Miss Eleanor Doane's mother, Mrs. Judith Cotright was present at St. Luke and other relatives also from North Carolina for family day.

Outstanding performer Anne Hancock.

Those students performing in the recital are as follows: Lisa Bentley, Janice Foster, David Fedison, JoEllen Garrett, Anne Hancock, Mary Kathern Harden, Paige Jones, Dawn Lamberth, Beth Marston, Brett Marston, Wayne Martin, Wendy McClenny, Sheila Mullins, Cheryl Jennings, Lisa Rogers, Cheryl Simpson, Regina Watkins, Kathy White, Sherry Wilcox, Lisa Williamson, Gayle Wooldridge, Nancy Wooldridge and Lisa Woodall. We thank Appomattox County High School for the use of their facilities and Roberts Piano Company and Mr. Harold Wright.

Galilee Baptist

The C. J. Moore singers of Rocky Mount, Va. rendered a special musical program at the Galilee Baptist Church at 3 p.m Sunday. Georgia Hamlett sponsored the program for the benefit of the building fund. The program was divided into two parts and Mrs. Hamlet served as mistress of ceremony. A short devotional period was conducted by the following; Miss Charletta and Melton Hamlett, the Rev. Johnny Murray offered words of inspiration.

The general public is cordially invited to attend regular preaching services this Sunday at 11 a.m. At 1 p.m. a special musical program will be given by the Appomattox Trumpeteers. Miss Crystal Mays is sponsor for the band. All of the Sunday School. Members and friends are asked to come out.

Mrs. Margaret Forest is improving.

An overflow crowd of members, relatives and friends attended the "out-reach" program at the Mt. Airy Baptist Church.

Plans are in the making for a special trip to Baltimore the latter part of August. Plans will be finalized in the very near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis and son of Washington, D. C. spent the Memorial Day weekend here visiting relatives and friends.

Annual homecoming will be observed at the First Baptist Church on the second Sunday in June. The public is invited.

Promise Land News

The Cornerstone Baptist Union was held with the Promise Land Church. The service was wonderfully carried out and was enjoyed by all. All schools were represented.

The youth program was enjoyed by all.

Lunch was served in the fellowship hall after the service.

The Echoes of Joy of Darlington Heights will be singing in concert at 3 p.m. Sunday at Promise Land Baptist Church.

Please come and make this program a success.

WATSON — In loving memory of Ruth G. Watson, who passed away 1 year ago, May 31, 1980.
God saw your footsteps faltering that day,
As the pathway was growing too steep,
Then he touched your weary eyelids,
And let you fall asleep.
With this you left behind broken hearts,
That never die and never will
Get over seeing your face and hearing your voice that we loved so dear.
The flowers we place upon your grave,
May wither and decay,
But the love for you who sleeps beneath,
Will never fade away.
Because in our hearts, still aching with sadness,
Our eyes still shedding many tears,
There always will be a beautiful memory.
Of the one we loved so dear.
Husband, Larry H. Watson, Sr.

50. Memoriams

In memory of Joel T. Morris who died June 6, 1957.
As we stroll along
Life's highways
With a smile upon our face.
Some may think we have Forgotten
Our pegs, but no,
Not in this place.
For we think of him often and
Love him as of then,
We're glad he and mama
Are together again.
